WRITING: A2 Level

The writing section is scored out of a total of ten points. There are five criteria, each of which receives two points.

Candidates whose writing ability for a criterion is considered to be below the minimum acceptable standard for A2 level receive zero points for that criterion. Candidates whose writing ability is judged to be at the minimum standard for A2 level receive one point for that criterion, while candidates whose ability for a criterion is considered to be above the minimum level for A2 receive two points for that criterion.

The number of points for each criterion is added together to give a total score out of ten.

A successful candidate at minimum A2 level can:

- write short, simple formulaic text relating to matters in areas of immediate need
- write very simple personal letters
- write a series of simple phrases and sentences linked with simple connectors like 'and', 'but' and 'because'
- write about everyday aspects of his/her environment, e.g. people, places, a job or study experience, in linked sentences
- write very short, basic descriptions of events, past activities and personal experiences
